From: peter allen
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 2:15pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I oppose any settlement which is not structured so that all developers will have equal access to the underlying system. Splitting Microsoft in to two parts is a minimal way to create a situation in which the interface to the operating system will be consistently available to all.

Peter Allen